VALENTINE'S DAY PROGRAM ♥

Our Special Luncheon Committee has arranged a program even though we won't physically gather for this year's Valentine's Luncheon. For February 9, Susanne Gram-Hanssen is our speaker via Zoom. She lives in Copenhagen, Denmark, and she was District Governor in 2018-19. Denmark has about 10,000 Rotarians divided into about 200 clubs. Susanne has been around many clubs, and it will be interesting to hear about Danish Rotary.

JANUARY 19 PROGRAM

David Gugerty (pictured above) shared an update on the Bill Lamb films made possible by our Rotary Club's $10,000 Grant for our 100th Anniversary. The Bureau County Historical Society has the Bill Lamb Collection that includes 100,000 pictures and 60 movies.

Bill Lamb made movies using 35 mm film in order to show these at the Apollo Theater. From 1940 to 1952, he used nitrate film stock, which today is considered a hazardous material. Also, that film is beginning to degrade. (In 1953, Lamb switched to safety film.) The Rotary Grant helped pay for the nitrate films to be professionally and safely captured into individual frames to historically preserve the movie images that were then used to produce The Bill Lamb Collection Volume 2.

<https://bureaucountyhistoricalsociety.com>.

As segments of the DVD were shown during our Zoom program, clips from the DVD are shown to the right.
