February 8 Program
Chantha Chhim
Bunker Hill Church

As part of our Valentine's Day celebration, we had the pleasure of having one of our own Rotarians present a program on "relationships." Chantha shared that this topic covers ALL areas of life. He spoke about his childhood and how growing up without a father distorted his views of relationships. In 21 years of marriage, he has had to learn and unlearn facets of relationships, and this can apply to our jobs, friends, and neighbors. Chantha used the analogy of a slot machine. Thinking we can drop a quarter in and get a return on our investment immediately is not healthy. If we think in terms of investments, we can yield a FUTURE return, not necessarily an immediate one. Chantha provided a handout that defined takers, traders, and investors, along with these investment strategies for relationships: 1) Think of others first; prioritize; this will add value to your relationships. 2) Focus on the investment, not the return. Make the investment! 3) Make educated investments. Put your energy where you know it's worthy. 4) initiate the investment. Be willing to take the first step, and don't be stingy. Chantha equated a number of principles such as time, talent, and treasure to his work in the church and our Rotary Club. Rotarians seem to be investors — they give and then receive. These are the people who give purely for the joy of giving. They add value to others, not as part of a cold calculation, but as a habit. Although doing so may not earn them an instant return, in the long run they reap the gratitude and goodwill of those they helped. Happy Valentine's Day!

WORLD SERIES OF GIVING

As part of the "World Series of Giving," each Rotary Club is being provided with a baseball trivia question. The FIRST Rotarian to email Tracy Grimmer (tgrimmer@firststatebank.biz) with the correct answer will receive 100 Paul Harris Fellow points from the club! Good luck!

"Pitch at Risk, to Rich Zisk" read the banner in the outfield saluting the most entertaining White Sox team in the club's history. But the former Pirate slugger wasn't the home run leader for the revered South Side Hitmen that magical 1977 season. Who was?

Congratulations

Congratulations to Tracy Grimmer on being named a Paul Harris Fellow! THANK YOU for your dedication to Rotary!

EACH ONE BRING ONE

Don't forget! This membership initiative kicked off October 1, and we had a great start! Each Rotarian is encouraged to bring a guest to an upcoming meeting. We will be tracking our progress for some friendly competition! There are some monetary incentives being offered by the District for 75%, 90%, and 100% club participation! Can we reach our goal?! Contact Tracy Grimmer with questions.
