March 22 Program
Jenica Cole
Executive Director
Princeton Area Chamber of Commerce

Jenica began her program by acknowledging the board members and ambassadors of the Chamber who are also Rotarians. There were quite a few! She then shared flyers for Business After Hours, Lunch in the Park, the Chamber Classic, and Golf Ball Drop. Jenica said the Chamber Board met recently to discuss their strategic plan, and one of their goals is to get membership more involved. She took a few minutes to have Rotarians complete a questionnaire in that regard. The Salute to Ag Breakfast is being held on Friday and is SOLD OUT! This is the first time it's been held since the pandemic, and they are excited to award 4 scholarships! This year, the annual meeting is being combined with the fundraiser and 75th anniversary celebration. Tickets will be available soon through Eventbrite. Jenica said the event will include silent and live auctions, dueling pianos, and up to 44 tables of guests! Table sponsorships are available. This year, the Chamber will be involved in

These will take place on the north end of the park. The rain date will be the following Friday. Jenica discussed the Building Improvement Grants and the fact that $14,000 went into projects in the past year! They have established a historic plaque program they will be sharing with local businesses as well. Jenica concluded her presentation with a short video highlighting the 2022 Street Concert Series.
