March 7 Program
 Princeton Theater Group/Festival 56

Tracy Wright introduced Rita Hanna who is a board member with the Princeton Theater Group. Rita gave a brief summary of Festival 56 and also their winter program. She was excited to announce that there is a trip to NYC planned for December with a portion of proceeds benefiting Festival 56. Flyers were shared for anyone interested. As they prepare for their summer season, Rita said host families are always needed for actors and crew members. They can also always use volunteers for their committees, especially building. More information can be found on their website at Festival56.com. Rita introduced Jimmy Calitri who has been an artistic director with the group since October 2022. Jimmy has worked with Festival 56 overall for about 15 years. He and Tim Seib share artistic director responsibilities, and he said Tim has significant talent and experience. 20th year of theater in Princeton, and Festival 56 is happy to have many alumni involved. They are also planning a series of cabarets. Jimmy said they have been busy with spring cleaning, painting, and building maintenance - all to enhance the audience experience and offer a warm, inviting, and clean space. Festival 56 is still seeking sponsors for their season, in addition to the volunteers that Rita spoke of. The children's camp this year will begin on July 10th and includes 3rd through 8th graders, and they will be part of the final show of the season. Jimmy said they are excited to help Laura Brigham celebrate her "retirement" from Festival 56, which she co-founded, at one of the cabarets.
