May 23 Program
 Nothing Reads Like a Book Wrap-Up

Over the past several months, a total of 80 books were purchased by our club at a cost of $1,725. On May 23rd, we celebrated the success of the service project with members of the Princeton Public Library staff, board members, and volunteers. The final check was presented to Julie Wayland, director, who then shared the history of the local library. Tony Bonucci, newly-elected president of the Princeton Public Library Board, also spoke. Joe Kitchens applauded the library for their vision 15 years ago for the 28,000 square foot reimagined and repurposed space where Princeton Public Library is now located. THANK YOU to everyone who helped make this service project a success! We can't wait to see totals for the entire District!
