June 26 Program
Patrick Lilley - Princeton Moose Lodge
 Patrick is the administrator of the local Moose Lodge and spoke about some of their programs and basic information about their organization. There are 1,600 organizations in the U.S. including all states but Hawaii. There are no mandatory meetings or volunteer hours, yet there were 80 million hours of service nationwide last year! Patrick recently returned from the international convention where Princeton was 1 of 2 (out of 70) Lodges in Illinois to receive the Premium Lodge Award by meeting their milestones. Patrick was also 1 of 9 administrators recognized for his leadership (which comes as no surprise to those who know him!) Patrick spoke of their partnership with Rotary and said they look forward to Blacklight Bingo again and enjoyed helping out with ShrimpFest. In recognition of their tremendous support, Patrick was presented with a check that can be used as the Lodge wishes to further support their various programs.
