Steve Bouslog introduced Lex Poppens, Executive Director of the Bureau County Historical Society for our January 16 program. Lex brought us to date on the work that has been done at the former Matson Public Library, now known as the Sash Statler Matson Building. The library was first dedicated on April 25, 1913. The exterior of the building has been painted, sidewalks were replaced, and all electrical work is now to code. The new monument was installed last year. Additional work has taken place inside the building to repair water damage and some years of neglect. Lex noted that a new exhibit, 1912, will open on March 2. The former library will be open for Homestead, and he encourages everyone to visit. He talked about "A Bridge for the Ages" that is now on sale. It has numerous photos and history of the Red Covered Bridge. For more information about the Bureau County History Center, visit www.bureauhistory.org.

What are the Rotary Peace Fellowships? Each year, Rotary, awards up to 130 fully funded fellowships for dedicated leaders to study at Rotary Peace Centers at universities around the world. Through academic training, practice, and global networking opportunities, these professionals develop their capacity to become effective catalysts for peace. Rotary Peace Fellows earn either master's degrees or professional development certificates in subjects related to peace and development. Since 2002, the Rotary Peace Centers have trained more than 1,500 fellows who work in over 115 countries in education, government roles, and international organizations.

"The Rotary Peace Fellowship program came at a point in my life where I wanted to validate my work. Some of the skills I took back from the fellowship include better communication in the nonviolent space. I feel supported by this community and can reach out to any peace fellow in the world." ~ ElsaMarie D'Silva, CEO, Red Dot Foundation
