March 19 Program

Jeff Hunt, Rotary Club Treasurer

Jeff shared a recent income statement and explained the information included. This included revenue and expenses and a breakdown of expenses by category as well as miscellaneous expenses. He briefly reviewed the budget that is established every year and noted how the ledger balance coincides with the checking account statement. Some funds are "restricted," in that they are set aside for special purposes such as community grants or scholarships. A separate checking account is also maintained for the district grant monies that may be received. The Rotary year runs from July 1 to June 30 each year. Several questions were asked of Jeff, and he noted that our Rotary club is financially healthy. Donations to the club are not tax deductible since we are a 501(c)4 organization; however, Rotary International is a 501(c)3 and donations made to them are tax deductible. A credit/debit card option will be available this year for ShrimpFest, and it will be a welcome addition. In this last year, Jeff dealt with sales taxes as required because of the sale of alcohol during ShrimpFest. Finally, Jeff was asked about Rotary dues, and he said they are just under the $145 per person that the club collects. At the end of his presentation, Joe reminded Rotarians that the monthly board meeting minutes are shared with them, and there is usually a summary of finances there. He encouraged anyone with questions to seek out Jeff for an explanation. Prior to Jeff's program, committee updates were provided. Community Service needs volunteers for scattering eggs on March 30th for the Easter egg hunt. A joint meeting is planned for May 1st, and invites went out today. Anyone planning to attend should contact Joe. Business After Hours will be hosted by our club on April 18th. Foundation dinner invites were shared as well. What is a global grant for vocational training? Vocational training teams are groups of professionals who travel to another country, either to learn more about their profession or to teach local professionals more about it. The Rotary Foundation funds some vocational training teams in our areas of focus through global grants. This training is often carried out in conjunction with a humanitarian project. A team should include at least three people. The team leader needs to be a Rotary member, while the other participants can be members or nonmembers who have experience in the area of focus. Rotary previously had a program called Group Study Exchange, which promoted international understanding and offered person-to-person opportunities for participants to learn how their vocation was practiced in other countries. It was phased out when we updated our grant model and placed this activity within global grants. Think about whether you could join a vocational training team, or know a nonmember who could participate.
